No. 1023.—The Board of Commissioners for Hindu Religious Endowments brings to notice that the three temples in the village of Chennur in Gudur taluk, Nellore district, specified in the annexure the annual income of each of which is less than Rs. 250, and which are thus outside the scope of the Hindu Religious Endowments Act, 1923, are in a neglected condition. It is reported as regards the Sri Chennakesavaswami temple that its inner temple has partly fallen down, that the roof is cracked and that the gopuram is in danger of falling and that the compound walls of the Chennakesavaswami and Anjaneyaswami temples are as good as non-existent. It is also reported that the archakas of the three temples are enjoying the whole of the produce of the lands without devoting any part of it to the repairs of the temples, and that the lands forming the separate endowments of the temples are all close to a tank bed and are liable to submersion. In the circumstances, the Board requests the Government to apply to these temples all the provisions of the Madras Hindu Religious Endowments Act, 1923, except section 65 (1) (which relates to the levy of contribution towards the expenses of the Board) so that the Board may exercise jurisdiction and settle a scheme in respect of each of them, providing for better management. Before issuing a notification under the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 2 of the Act as desired by the Board, the Government desire to know whether any trustee of or worshipper at the temple has any objection to urge against the application of the Act. If no valid objection is received by Government within a month from the date of publication of this notification in the District Gazette, they will proceed to issue a notification under proviso to sub-section (3) of section 2 of the Act applying all the provisions of the Act except section 65 (1) to the three temples in question.

ANNEXURE.

1. Sri Someswaraswami temple.
3. Sri Chennakesavaswami temple.
3. Sri Anjaneyaswami temple.

No. 1028.—The Board of Commissioners for Hindu Religious Endowments brings to the notice of Government that the affairs of the Sri Agastheswaraswami temple in the village of Gundlur, Rajampet taluk, Cuddapah district, are being seriously mismanaged, that the temple is in a decaying condition, that the roof of the Mukha mantapam has fallen in, that the compound is overgrown with thorny vegetation, and that the car of the temple is also in a ruined state. The Board further reports that the lands of the temples are in possession of the archakas while the tasdik amounts are received by the trustees, that no regular accounts are kept by the trustees, that they take no interest in the affairs of the temple, and that there has been no effective supervision on the part of the Committee. In the circumstances, the Board requests the Government to apply to the temple as well as to the Vinayaka Veerabhadraswami temple within the compound of the said Agastheswaraswami temple all the provisions of the Madras Hindu Religious Endowments Act, 1923, except section 65 (1) (which relates to the levy of contribution towards the expenses of the Board). Before issuing a notification under the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 2 of the Act as desired by the Board, the Government desire to know whether any trustee of or worshipper at the temple has any objection to urge against such application. If no valid objection is received by Government within a month from the date of publication of this notification in the District Gazette, they will proceed to issue a notification under proviso to sub-section (3) of section 2 of the Act applying all the provisions of the Act except section 65 (1) to the said temples.

No. 1030.—In G.O. No. 2557, L. & M., dated the 14th July 1925, the Government made a rule in regard to the leave allowances of officers and servants of local bodies transferred from one local body to another. The Surgeon-General has brought to the notice of the Government an instance in which there was a delay of over two years in the payment of leave allowance to a compounder who had served under several local boards, owing to correspondence in regard to the amount of leave allowance payable by one of them. In order to avoid such delay the Government propose to lay down that the local authority under which the officer or servant is serving when he takes leave should pay the leave allowance due to him from its own funds in the first instance and then arrange to recover from the other local authorities concerned under which he may have served, the amount of leave allowance payable by them.

2. The rule issued in G.O. No. 2557, L. & M., dated the 18th July 1925, will be revised with reference to paragraph 1 above. The revised rule is shown in the appendix to this order.

3. The appended notification will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette.

A local board / municipal council may allow its officers and servants to count for leave their previous service under any other local board or any municipal council / municipal council or any local board constituted under Madras Act V of 1920. / constituted under Madras Act XIV of 1920. In such cases the leave allowances and the manner of payment thereof shall be determined as follows:—

When a local authority permits any of its officers and servants to leave its service and take up service under any other local authority, the period of leave and the amount of leave allowances for which the former authority may accept liability according to the service regulations adopted by it shall be determined and communicated to the latter. The latter local authority shall ascertain these at the time of transfer and may grant the officer or servant any leave and leave allowances admissible according to its service regulations, but it cannot make the former local authority liable either for a longer period of leave or for a larger amount of leave allowance than that agreed upon at the time of transfer. The difference, if any, that may be required to make up the leave allowance due to the officer or servant shall be borne by the local authority to which he is transferred. The local authority granting the leave shall pay the leave allowance of the officer or servant from its own funds in the first instance, and then arrange to recover from the local authority concerned the amount of leave allowance which it is liable to pay.

Madras, 17th September 1926.

THE INDIGO CROP OF 1926-26, FIRST REPORT.

(On an average of the five years ending 1924-25, the area under indigo in the Madras Presidency has represented 44·9 per cent of the total area under indigo in India.)

The area sown with indigo in the Madras Presidency up to the end of August 1925 is estimated at 40,100 acres against 55,500 acres on the corresponding date of last year, a decrease of 28 per cent.

2. The reduction in area is general in most of the important districts, especially in Kistna, Guntur, Cuddapah, Nellore and South Arcot owing to the small demand for the dye as the result of the competition of cheap synthetic dyes.

3. The crop suffered from drought in Guntur, South Arcot and Salem and to a less extent in Cuddapah, Chingleput and North Arcot. Normal yields are expected in the other districts.

4. There is no information about the quantity actually manufactured into dye or cut and ploughed into wet land soils as green manure. But the use as green manure is on the increase, especially in the Carnatic and Central districts. If the whole crop were manufactured into dye, the possible yield would be about 9,620 cwt. against 13,380 cwt. estimated at the corresponding date of last year.

5. Figures by districts are appended below :—

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The general law relating to forests in British India is contained in the Indian Forest Act, 1878, and its amending Acts. The present Bill brings the law together within the scope of one enactment. The Bill is a straightforward consolidating Bill, but the original Act having been passed before the General Clauses Act of 1897 (X of 1897), it has been possible to shorten the language of the Bill by taking advantage of that Act. The ambiguous language of the second paragraph of section 42 of Act VII of 1878 has been altered in clause 43 (2) so as to bring it into conformity with what appears to have been the original intention of the law. The only other point which calls for further notice is the extent clause. The original Act extended to the Province of Assam, but by Regulation VII of 1891 the Indian Forest Act, 1878, was repealed as far as it relates to Assam. The Bill accordingly omits Assam from the extent clause.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Jains in the South Kanara district are about 9,000 in number and are rich landowners. In matters of faith and religious practices they conform to the Jains in other parts of India. They belong to the Digambara sect. Their shrines situated in Karkal, Venur, Mudabidri and other places are worshipped by all classes of Jains in India and are visited by pilgrims in large numbers annually. In matters of social usages, they conform to those prevailing among the higher classes of Hindus governed by Mitakshara Law of Inheritance. The thread investment ceremony, the pouring of water at the time of the 'Dhara' or marriage ceremony by the parents, the rules of pollution on the occasion of birth and death are observed as in Makkalasanthana system. The Jain temples are officiated by Jain priests called 'Indras' and they preside at the marriage and other ceremonies. They intermarry with Jains in other parts of India.

Yet, by a strange irony of fate, while they have everything in common with the Jains in other parts of India who are governed by the rules of Hindu Law and who observe the Makkalasanthana System of Inheritance to their property, the Jains in South Kanara are governed by the Aliyasanthana System of Inheritance by which the line of descent to property is traced to females and whereby the property devolves on sisters and nephews rather than on sons and daughters, as found among Bunts, Billawars and other communities. Even here, the practice is not uniform. The 'Indras' or the priestly class are followers of the Makkalsanthana and some of the chief families as 'Ajlar' and the Dharmastala Heggade also follow it. It is futile to ascertain how these incongruities arose and no sufficient materials are available to make researches into it. But the disabilities arising from the application of the Aliyasanthana System of Inheritance to Jains who have very little in common with the other classes governed by Aliyasanthana Law are keenly felt, the more so when marriage among them is a recognized institution but is not recognized by law as conferring the right of inheritance from father to son. The Malabar Marriage Act of 1896, though it included all Hindus governed by Aliyasanthana law, has failed to give any relief to the Jains, since the registration of marriages which is made compulsory under the Act before the marriage is legally recognized, is strongly resented to by the Jains and is opposed to the social custom which recognizes it and governs all their relations. Even among Marumakkatayam and other followers of the Malabar Marriage Act, the Act is more or less a dead letter as very few marriages have been registered though the Act was passed more than several decades ago. The present measure, therefore, takes for granted the institution of marriage and bases upon it as being sufficient to confer rights of inheritance. The attempt is to bring into a line with the right of inheritance enjoyed by Jains in other parts of India who follow the Mitakshara Law of Inheritance under the Hindu Law. It is not attempted to revolutionize the whole system of Aliyasanthana inheritance and the tarwad or family rights are not in any way touched upon and are kept intact, since it will affect the vested rights. The Bill affects only the self-acquired or the tarwad properties of the last surviving owner who could effectively dispose of it by will or testament.

It may be relevant to point out that the Legislature has interfered to give redress in similar instances. In the case of Mappillas of South Kanara who have a recognized system of marriage under Muhammadan Law, but among whom the Marumakkatayam or Aliyasanthana System of Inheritance prevailed, the Legislature by Act I of 1918 gave the necessary relief by confining its operation to self-acquired properties and made the properties descendible to children instead of tarwad members, i.e., to sisters and sisters' children. The present Bill attempts no more than what has been done under Act I of 1918 and is practically framed on the same lines by giving legal sanction to the marriage prevalent and recognizing the issue of such marriages entitling them to inherit the property.

The matter was brought to the notice of Government by a memorial dated 29th May 1918 through the Collector of the district and the Government, after obtaining the opinions of High Court Judges, the Advocate-General and the District Judge of South Kanara, who all favourably viewed it, gave permission by G.O. No. 944, dated 29th April 1919, to introduce a Bill in the Local Legislative Council by a non-official member.

No further action was taken since there was no non-official member sufficiently interested in the introduction of the Bill and hence the present measure is brought. There are only five sections; sections 1 and 4 require no comment and section 5 has been sufficiently dealt with.

BILL No. 8 OF 1926.

A Bill to amend the Madras Village Courts (Amendment) Act, 1919.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Madras Village Courts (Amendment) Act, 1919, and whereas the previous sanction of the Governor-General has been obtained; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Madras Village Courts (Amendment) Act, 1926.

2. In section 9, sub-section 3 after the words 'subject to', the following words 'nominations to be made by the Government in the case of depressed classes and' shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under the Madras Local Boards Act, and the District Municipalities Act, nominations of the depressed classes to the Local Boards and Municipal Councils are being made and it has not been found possible for the depressed classes to come in by election. When such is the case, there is no possibility of securing seats in the village Panchayat Courts except by way of nomination.

BILL No. 9 OF 1926.

The Elementary Education Act (Amendment) Bill.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Madras Elementary Education Act (VIII of 1920); It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Madras Elementary Education (Amendment) Act of 1926.

2. In section 5 add after clause (5) following clause:—

"(6) Every registered educational society maintaining an elementary school or elementary schools in which instruction is given to children not less than 1,000 in number shall be entitled to elect one representative in the District Educational Council for every such number of 1,000."

Re-number clause (6) as clause (7).

5. Add to section 47 the following:—

"Such compensation shall be calculated to make up the deficit in the cost of maintaining the school or schools after taking into account the grant-in-aid admissible under section 42 and shall always be paid to a registered educational society as long as it maintains an elementary school or elementary schools in which instruction is given to children not less than 1,000 in number."

4. Substitute for second proviso in section 49 the following:—

"Provided further that no guardian shall be compelled to cause a child of a faith, like Christian or Muhammadan, which enjoins the obligation of religious instruction in schools, to attend a school at which adequate arrangements have not been made for religious instruction in the faith of that child."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Taking the reverse order, this Bill seeks firstly to extend the concession under Section 49 Proviso to Christians and others whose faith like that of Muhammedans insists upon religious instruction in secular schools. Secondly a registered society which maintains a large school or a large number of schools should, I submit, have one separate or special representative for every 1,000 pupils in the Educational Council, under section 5. Thirdly such societies should, I would urge, also not be financially prejudiced as a result of compulsory and free education. Hence the new provision under section 47. The self-sacrifice of several bodies with men, women and money for the purpose of education, deserves, I think, the concession sought.
